Public Service Commission Circular-03/2020

Secretaries of Ministries

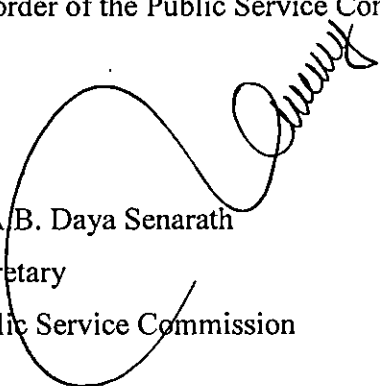

Heads of Departments

The period of release of an officer who is so released from public service temporarily at the officer's instance to hold a post a public officer himself should invariably hold on the exigency of any act

The period of release of an officer who is released from public service temporarily at the officer's instance to hold a post a public officer himself should invariably hold on the exigency of any act should be reckoned as a period of no-pay leave. However, this period of no-pay is reckoned as a part of the active period of service of the officer for the purpose of promotion and seniority.

Such period for which an officer is released is made applicable in the computation of the pension of the officer only if he pays for every full month during the said period a sum not more than twenty five percent from the salary entitled to his permanent post he held in the public service to the Director General of Pensions to be credited to the Consolidated Fund. Likewise, he should also pay the W&OP Contributions during the respective period to the Director General of Pensions.

By order of the Public Service Commission,

M.A.B. Daya Senarath
Secretary
Public Service Commission
